

Income of the Living

The parish of Chisledon in the County of Wilts being An large Extent and the inhabitants thereof very numerous, the Duty occasioned thereby more particularly requires a Resident Minister: And as the Income of the living is deemed insufficient for the purpose it amounting net. to more than 35 £ per Ann: it was humbly proposed for the Benefit of the present Incumbent and his successors to raise the Sum of two Hundred Pounds by the voluntary contribution of those who are Well Wishers to the Establishment of the Church of England, and the decent Appointments of its Ministers in Order to the obtaining th Queen's bounty to be settled on the said Vicarage for ever.

We therefore whose Names are hereunto subscribed have agreed and promised to contribute the Sums opposite to our respective Names for the Accomplishment of the aforesaid good Design.
