

Little Hinton 1700 Duty Return, Wilts

Document held at WSHC, Chippenham (ref 212B/7202A) Transcribed by Mogs Boon, Little Hinton archivist

An 1694 Act of William III imposing various taxes This unpopular Act was in force from 1695-1706 and was to raise money for the war with France This is the only Little Hinton return to survive (along with about 400 countrywide)

Assessment made for the fifth of Little Hinton Burials Births and Marriages and upon Batchelors and Widows for the year 1700

Harris Atkinson his wife and 4 children
Matthew Coker and his wife and two children
John Pope his wife and one child
Samuel Harris and two children
Widow Heath
John Brind his wife and two children
William Keep and his wife
John Chamberline his wife and three children
John Cox
Will Cox and his wife and two children
Edward Berry and one child
Widow Rimes and two children
John Shiveman and his wife and four children
Richard Hindon and his wife
Thomas Lord and his wife and two children
Thomas Lord Batchelor
William Berry and his wife and nine children
William Berry Batchelor
John Berry his wife and eight children
Thomas Dore and his wife and five children
William Chamberline
Henry Taylor Batchelor
Widow Heath and three children
Widow Perkins
Thomas Perkins and his wife and four children
Thomas Loveday and his wife
Thomas Loveday and his wife and two children
John Whip and his wife and four children
Mary Herring and one child
Will [?] Weavend and his wife and three children
John Linfrey and his one child
John Chamberline and his wife
John Harding and his wife
Ann Smith
Mary Brunsdon
Thomas Edwards and son
Thomas Edwards Junior and his wife and three children
Jonathan Bunts and his wife and two children
Obadiah Pound Batchelor
Will Perkins and his wife and one child
Will Stalbey
Sarah Birkmill
Rebecah Baker

Francis Tanner Collator for the year 1699 deceased
Thomas Dore Collator for the year 1700

Received £1 6s 6d

Thomas Bond
T Chamberlayne